

Red Cross Is Seeking $1100 In Randall Co.

March 1951 was proclaimed Red Cross Month by Harry S. Truman, President of the United States, in a national-wide broadcast from Madison Square Garden on Tuesday evening, February 27. Scores of top stars of stage, screen, radio and television appeared on the show to dramatize over the nation's radio networks this year's Red Cross needs for $85,000,000.

The President's proclamation, in part, read as follows:

"Whereas The American National Red Cross, chartered by the Congress as a voluntary agency of the American people, has accepted important new responsibilities in the present national emergency at the request of the Government; and

"Whereas this organization must continue to provide vitally needed services to the members of our expanding armed forces in military installations and hospitals around the world, as well as to their families and to war veterans and their dependents; and

"Whereas in addition to its duties of providing for the normal blood needs of the ill and injured in our civilian population, the Red Cross has been designated the national coordinating agency in a program for the procurement of vast quantities of blood and for the stockpiling of blood plasma for defense purposes; and

"Now, therefore, I, Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America and Honorary Chairman of the American National Red Cross, do hereby designate the month of March 1951 as Red Cross Month; and I urge every American to respond during that month as generously as possible to the urgent need of this humanitarian organization."

The quota for the local chapter of the American Red Cross is $1,100.00, but because of the ever-increasing responsibilities given the organization, we need to raise at least twice that amount, stated Milton Morris, fund raising chairman of Randall County. Six percent of all donations above the national quota remains in Randall County.

Captains for Canyon are: E. M. Myers for southwest part of town, W. E. Miller for northwest part of town, Dr. W. J. Wooten for northeast part of town, Marion Higdon for southeast part of town, Miss Ruth Cross for east of highway going to Happy and south of highway to Palo Duro, J. L. Gilmore for east of Cousins Hall and north of 4th Avenue, and W. J. Phelps for west of the High School. The list of workers for each section is not yet complete, but will be available for next week's paper.

Captains and workers for the rural areas of the county will be selected during the rest of the week.

Workers are to get supplies and leave donations at the City Hall with Mrs. Strain.

Mr. Morris stated, "We do not call on business houses and will not put a desk in the postoffice." The local drive begins today. If, by the last of next week, you have not been contacted for a contribution to the Red Cross, call Mr. Morris or Mrs. Strain.

Cecil Massey Has Made Report on Recreation Work

Cecil Massey has made his semi-annual report of the activities of the Canyon Community Recreation work which he has conducted since June 1, 1950.

The report consists of 40 pages, with the division sheets printed and the explanation sheets being mimeographed.

Letters of appreciation of the work being accomplished are published from Mayor Andy Walsh, Harold Van Arsdale of the National Recreation Association; Sheriff M. E. Cantrell.

A breakdown of the finances of the organization is shown in the report. It cost 18 cents per family during the seven months period for the recreational program put on for the 14,950 participants and spectators. The average weekly attendance at the program has numbered 533.

Mr. Massey has appeared before the various clubs and organizations of Canyon to tell of the recreational program and the goals set out for the year.

1.12 Inches of Rain Falls Saturday Nite

Rain fell over the entire Panhandle area Saturday night, bringing 1.12 inches of moisture in Canyon during the rain period.

This is the first general rain that has fallen in this section since September.

Wheat fields which looked dead before the rain have greened up and the young plants are making a rapid recovery.

Moisture started to gather over this section Thursday, with indications that rain would start to fall if conditions remained favorable. Traces of rain were reported Thursday night and Friday at various parts of the Panhandle. However, it was not until Saturday morning that it became evident that a real rain was rapidly developing.

With a heavy mist and fog throughout the day, the rain clouds gathered early Saturday night, and the rain started to come down gently. By mid-morning the total moisture received was 1.12 inches in Canyon. The moisture varied in different places over the Panhandle.

So far no reports have been received as to the possible effect of the rain on green bugs which are infecting various sections of the Panhandle.

Public School Week Set Aside by Mayor Walsh

Public Schools Week in Canyon has been proclaimed by Mayor A. L. Walsh to be observed March 4 to March 10.

He urges all citizens to visit the schools during the week.

The proclamation follows:

PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK

WHEREAS, the week of March 4 to March 10, 1951, has been set aside and designated as P U B L I C S C H O O L S W E E K; and

WHEREAS, as we take inventory of our blessings and our accomplishments in this, our 104th year of Statehood, we view with satisfaction the progress that has been made in education, the basis of which is our public school system; and

WHEREAS, the principal objective of Public School Week is to call to the attention of the people of America, the part which our schools play in the preservation and promotion of democratic life. More than twenty-five million children are enrolled in the public schools of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, we believe that through the joint efforts of state and local governments the opportunities afforded our children for a sound basic education are not excelled anywhere. If we are justified in this conclusion it is only because our citizens have shown a personal interest in education and because public-spirited men and women have been willing to devote their lives to the teaching of our youth; and

WHEREAS, it is of paramount importance that the interest of the public be stimulated in the work of the public schools; that the public be given an opportunity to participate in selecting educational obligations, and that a greater opportunity for cooperation of parents and other civilians with teachers be given for the improvement of the public schools.

NOW THEREFORE, I, A. L. WALSH, Mayor of the City of Canyon, do hereby proclaim the week of March 4 to March 10, 1951, as Public School Week in Canyon, and urge every citizen to visit the public schools during this period to become personally acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our educational system.

11 Deer Placed In Palo Duro Park by State

The State Game, Fish and Oyster department has placed 11 deer in the Palo Duro State Park, and will have another truck load of deer to place in the Park during this week. The deer come from the state game preserve.

Several years ago, while the park was getting started, a truck load of deer was placed in the Palo Duro State Park. The herd has multiplied, but the coyotes have killed too many of the young deer. A move is under way to rid the Palo Duro Canyon of coyotes in order to conserve wild life in this area. With a large number of deer in the Park, the appearance of the playground will be greatly improved.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new paved road which is under construction. While the heavy machinery is in the Park, lateral roads will be graded to points of general interest throughout the Park area.

He served his basic flight instructor at Goodfellow Field, San Angelo. He previously has served in the Alaskan Theatre of Operations for 18 months. His present job is an Air Traffic Control Officer.

Amarillo Firm to Seek Franchise for Bus Line to Park

Application has been made to the State for a franchise to operate a bus line between Amarillo and the Palo Duro State Park. The franchise also calls for the company to pick up passengers at Canyon for the Palo Duro Park.

Under the agreed application, no passengers would be allowed to ride these buses between Amarillo and Canyon since there are already two operating lines which serve these towns. Buses would run on the weekends and on holidays for the benefit of those who wish to visit the park but do not wish to use their own transportation facilities.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

War Situation Just as Clear
As Mud to Man on the Street

The war situation seemed considerably cleared up Tuesday when the department announced that no more National Guard units would be called and that those units now in action would soon be released.

Is somebody trying to kid somebody else?

Are the American people a bunch of idiots who cannot possibly understand what is behind all this talk?

The result:

Congress hit the ceiling and asked why it was that if the war situation has so suddenly eased that the war department continued to demand that 18 year old boys be called to the colors?

Parents wanted to know why it was that trained men were being left at home while green recruits are called and sent overseas with only slight training.

The people wanted to know why it was that if the war was so simple as this order seems to indicate that Congress and the administration is still preaching threats from Russia, and spending billions for defense.

Furthermore, the people want to know why we are raising an army with a brass band and loud trumpets, telling Stalin just what we are doing and what we intend doing with it after we accomplish our job at hand.

Yes, sir, to the man on the street the situation is perfectly clear—as clear as mud.

It seemed a few weeks ago that the administration was getting back part of its lost prestige with the people. This present situation indicates that the folks are still suspicious of what is going on in Washington.

Redistricting Seems to Be Just About Complete; Now Results

The Texas Senate has passed its redistricting bill over to the House; and the House has passed a redistricting bill of its own to the Senate.

Randall county remains in the Amarillo district in the senate redistricting bill.

In the House redistricting bill, Potter county gets one State Representative all of its own, and a florial district composed of Potter, Randall, Carson and Armstrong will have another Representative. We shall now see just how big hearted Potter county will be toward her country cousins.

Let it be remembered that whoever is elected to the legislature will have a whale of an expense item to meet, just for the pleasure of serving the people. But there are always many who are willing to make this sacrifice.

Constitutional Amendments
Will Be Presented to Voters

A number of constitutional amendments are being proposed in this session of the legislature.

Just why no one proposes that we hold a constitutional convention and revamp our constitution is hard to understand.

We will have the usual cry for more pay for the legislature. This amendment will likely carry if applied only to working days of the lawmakers.

Another proposed amendment would lengthen the term of office of all public officials. There is some doubt about this amendment.

Various other amendments are being proposed, but the first two are certain to be submitted. When? We hope that these do not come this year when so few have paid their poll tax.

Used Car Move Should Put a
Stop to Game of Profiteering

The government has taken steps to curb used car dealers who made fortunes during World War II, simply because people were willing to pay the price for cars, regardless of how high that price might be. No longer will you find shiny new cars on used car lots, priced at fabulous figures. That is, if price control works.

So far as this regulation is concerned, it is the most sensible yet proposed to protect the buying public. And furthermore, we do not need either a new or a used car.

The world has many people anxious to help you along, when you no longer require assistance.

Fortunes have been made because the seller persuaded buyers that they were getting bargains.

Advertising is a good servant if wisely controlled; undoubtedly, advertising pays when properly used.

One way to end the present crime wave would be to put crooked lawyers in jail, and keep them there.

Betcha more people get crooked from avoiding hard work, than become bent from too much of it.

Baseball fans are even now getting up hot arguments about the next pennant race.

The old-fashioned stenographer is the individual who put the "gum" in argument.

Mankind will do almost anything to make money as long as mankind worships wealth.

Advertising money is never altogether lost, usually, the promoter of the scheme prospers.

The only way to improve the human race is to see that the next generation is improved.

In 1945, we all thought that war was over; will we make the same mistake again?

It seems that nothing can keep a first-class man down, or lift a low-class man up.

The two-bit cigar now takes five cents worth of matches to keep it lit.

Remember when hankies were two for a nickel, instead of two for a dollar?

People who live in today's apartment houses have little room to complain.

The main trouble with the human race is human beings.

Over-confidence is the ally of the enemy.

Sound Logic Given on Economic Situation Confronting Nation

Wes Izzard talked in Canyon the other night and gave the economic formula which was pronounced recently by a Dallas banker. It looks like every American will agree that this economic formula is sound and should be repeated, time and time again.

Here it is:

1. Somebody has to work. (There can be no free wheeling in this nation.)

2. Somebody has to save. (You cannot invest unless you have the money by saving.)

3. Somebody has to risk. (The farmer plants, without knowing whether he will reap; every new business is a venture; any deep hole may be dry instead of a gusher.)

4. Somebody has to manage. (No matter whether it be a one man peanut stand or the biggest corporation in the world, there must be a business head; the fellow who takes the blame if the venture misfires.)

5. Whatever the government spends must come from the pockets of the people. (The government has nothing of its own; but the people have the money.)

6. Nobody can get something for nothing. (All of us must work, pay, give service, or give up some freedom whenever we rush to Washington to demand something for nothing.)

If every American will consider and thoroughly understand these points we shall all be better citizens.

Stand by United Nations; or Sink Alone in World of War

We see that there is growing opposition, not only in Washington, but in the fork of the creek, that the United Nations be dumped and that America form such alliances as we may control.

All of us get pretty peeved at the antics of Stalin and wish that we could kick him and his crew into the middle of the sea. But there is something more to the United Nations than meets the eye.

We have tried at various times to induce the nations of the world to play ball with us, in our own way. UN probably suits none of us very well, but if we do not stay in this organization, we are certain to soon find ourselves either without organization or without friends.

Even weak friends are better than no friends at all.

Union Leaders Have Definite Responsibility to Public

A federal judge has declared that unions are responsible for the acts of its membership. In other words, the organization which takes all of the credit for any benefits which may be derived through unionism, but refuses to shoulder the responsibilities which go with such a group, is treading upon dangerous ground.

Americans do not like to be ordered around, either without or within a labor union. But let it be remembered that once the member assumes the pledge of the group, he subjects himself to the dictates of the leaders, whom he has elected.

The decision of the federal judge may be radical and far from the usual court decisions, but it is just.

Advertising, So-called, Racket

Most people will heartily approve the banning of advertising from labor papers, programs and song books.

New York Police Commissioner Murphy has prohibited the sale of advertising by any member of his force for any such publication or enterprise. He takes the position that each organization should stand on its own feet, and if the project is worthy it will be supported by the public.

International Teamster, organ of the teamster union, has long taken such an attitude, prohibiting advertising in its 32 page monthly magazine. Other unions should do likewise.

Gamblers Invade Basketball

The gamblers have taken over the hitherto clean sport of basketball.

Gamblers have long been recognized as the vital influence in other fields of sports. Up until the recent scandal exposed in New York City, the gamblers have not been so lucky on the fast game of basketball.

It is a shame that even college athletes are subject to the influence of gamblers and have fallen for their promised rewards.

Many a thing, said in haste and forgotten by the speaker, remains in the heart of the listener for years.

With all our talk about charity and helping our fellow man, few of us ever hurt ourselves by generosity.

You can't reform the world alone in a few years nor in a hundred. Why get hot and bothered?

One trouble with the laws of the land is that most people think they were made for other people.

Nothing is further from the truth than the statement that "what we don't know doesn't hurt us."

Enforcement of traffic laws will do much to save the lives of pedestrians.

Few newspaper offices refuse to accept subscriptions out of office hours.

If every human being had the same ideas, there would be no human race.

Civilization: The passing of the hat pin and the advent of the pin-up.

The greatest builder of business that we know is what is known as education.

In your search for riches don't lose the things that money can't buy.

Wise men believe nothing that contradicts their intelligence.

Most of our critics now understand that criticism invites letters.

The enthusiasm of a salesman is what costs you money.

Nowadays servants are neither black nor white. They're green.

Cowhide has played an important part in the history of our country. Up in the Northwest in 1853 a party of emigrants going across the Cascades came to a sheer bluff, 25 miles south of Mount Ranier. The cliff was 30 feet, straight up and down. Below it was a long slope too steep for any oxen to stand on. Yet they could not turn back. It was go ahead or starve.

One man had a piece of rope 180 feet long—but it wasn't long enough. One of the emigrants said, "Kill one of the poorest of the oxen; make a rope of his hide and fasten it to the end of this rope." In all, they had to kill four oxen, cut the green hides into strips and knot the ends together.

One end of this long rope was tied to the hind wheel of a wagon. The remainder was twisted around a nearby tree and paid out, little by little. In this manner, the covered wagons were let down.

A still earlier use of green hides by Western travelers was in the making of "bull boats." Washington Irving described a trip by Captain Nathaniel Wyeth in 1830 down the Big Horn, then down the Yellowstone to the Missouri in a bull boat. It was made of three buffalo skins stretched over a light frame with the seams stitched tight as sewing could make them and then filled with elk tallow and ashes. This boat was 18 feet long. Irving commented: "It is surprising what rough shocks and thumps these boats will endure. Their duration, however, is limited; they require frequently to be hauled out of the water and dried, to prevent the hides from becoming water-soaked; and eventually rot and go to pieces."

The first wagon train of over 100 wagons, along the Oregon Trail in 1843, ferried the Platte River and took the loads and the women and children across by means of their wagon beds covered with raw buffalo hides to keep them from leaking.

How hides would stretch! A former governor, T. T. Geer, told how, as a young man in 1867, he worked in a sawmill that had an overshot wheel, 24 feet in diameter and 30 inches wide. It took three minutes for it to make a revolution. The belt was made of cowskins, the hair still on one side:

"We made a new one, one day, which measured 40 feet. The first afternoon we used it, we cut out a

Herschel Jennings Family Has a Variety of Hobbies in Home

The Canyon AAUW presents the Herschel Jennings family as its fourth hobbies group; previously featured were the Whealy, Wilson, and Burgess families.

The Jennings have five children: Neal is majoring in business law at ACC, Abilene, Texas; and Carl is a freshman there; Alvin is a ministerial student at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana; Donna, aged 5, and Duke, 10, are at home, and are active participants in the creative activities of the household. There are many of these: leather work; quilts; sewing; wood inlay trays, boxes, and pictures; ceramics and china painting; copper and aluminum etching; textile painting; growing flowers; and reading, writing, and recording poetry. The whole family shares in the leather work: Herschel brings in the skins during the hunting season. They are dressed and dyed by a taxidermist. Thelma (Mrs. Jennings) and the children design and make jackets, vests, and other items. Donna has a fringed jacket in gray-blue leather; Duke's jacket is made of a combination of buckskin and leopard print velour. These were very successfully made on the sewing machine at home.

Thelma's pet hobby is sewing, with a preference for making children's garments, and a fascination for creating toys. She makes her own designs, cuts her own patterns, and sews. She scales down patterns for her own clothes to fit Donna. One of the most recent sewing projects includes identical mother-daughter coats in wool.

Thelma makes quilted designs for robes, draperies, and bedspreads. One of the loveliest pieces is a linen handkerchief table cloth. At the present time Thelma and Donna are working on an heirloom quilt, the blocks of which will carry miniatures of Donna's dresses. The children are being taught to use the machine, and to contribute to the work.

News In Canyon 25 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Randall County News of March 4, 1926)

W. J. Flesher of Canyon announced as a candidate for the office of District Attorney, 47th Judicial District.

The Canyon Eagles defeated the Lorenzo high basketball team for bi-district honors and leave Friday for the state meet.

D. Mack Stewart was elected to the school board, replacing S. B. Orton, who resigned.

Governor Miriam Ferguson has announced for re-election. Attorney General Dan Moody is considering making the race.

Electric power was turned into Happy, and congratulations were extended to Happy by many Canyon business firms in this issue of The News.

H. C. Gamble was knocked down and run over by the fire truck during a fire Friday. His legs and feet were badly injured.

The city has added another pump to the water equipment.

T. B. McCarter was added to the staff of L. O. Smith, commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Farmers of Randall county were urged by County Agent J. W. Jennings to plant at least 20 acres to cotton this year in order to keep the cotton gin in Canyon.

Mayor T. C. Thompson has proclaimed a clean up day for Canyon, and urges that all citizens participate.

C. O. Keiser and T. A. Dowlen shipped a car load of Herefords to the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

The whole family enjoys wood inlay work. They make trays, pictures, and boxes from hardwood veneers. Each takes his part.

Ceramics and china painting are recent hobbies. Christmas presents for 1950 were figurines, frames, vases, shoes, dishes, and dolls. Copper and aluminum etchings and textile painting are other interests.

In the fall the family selects bulbs for winter blooming; these are buried in pots in the yard; in January they are lifted from the pit, and brought into the house and forced to bloom early. There are always flowers to be shared with the neighbors, the school, the church, clubs, and shut-ins. Crocuses, hyacinths, daffodils, and tulips all have a part in this project.

Tuesday evenings probably furnish the high point in each week's activity. Thelma brings out her multiple collection of poetry and dialect recordings to share with the children; sometimes there are calls for originals; there follows a little verse, the joint composition of Duke and Thelma.

The wire recorder is used in connection with poetry; each person records his own work. Together the Herschel Jennings family enjoys all these things, and music, pets, and airplanes. An exhibit of some of the family hobbies is on display at the McDonald Shop.

Geology Class Visits Canyons On Excursion

Monday afternoon, the geology class made a field trip to branches of Palo Duro Canyons. The group, under the direction of Dr. Roy Reinhart, explored several small parts of the Canyons. The group split up when the destination east of Canyon was reached, and one-half went to an excavation site and dug for bones and fossils. The other group explored a narrow part of the canyons where sheer cliff walls extend up about 30 feet and the widest part of the base is 10 feet. These cliffs have many shallow caves extending into them.

Cold Weather and Flu Go Hand In Hand Is Truth

Cold weather and influenza go hand in hand, so the proverbial "ounce of prevention" is especially timely. Influenza has many of the signs and symptoms of a common cold, and may develop from a cold. The popular nickname for the disease is "flu," according to Dr. Geo. W. Vox, State Health Officer.

The common symptoms of "flu" are well known. Fever at the onset, cough, and pains in the head, back and limbs have been experienced by many. This disease, which spreads rapidly, has a crippling effect on the community. Much time lost from school and work; therefore, its control is of economic and social as well as medical importance.

Since permanent immunity is not developed as the result of an attack of the disease, these epidemics continue to appear. Everyone is susceptible. The fact that this disease is highly contagious makes isolation and personal cleanliness of utmost importance in its prevention and control.

These suggestions should help: Keep up bodily resistance by eating well balanced meals and getting regular and adequate sleep; practice cleanliness; avoid using cups, glasses, dishes or towels that have been used by anyone else, including family members.

A physician should be called when "flu" symptoms appear. The sick person should be isolated from others with the exception of the person acting as nurse. The "flu" victim should go to bed and stay there until his physician says he can return to usual activity.

Prevent influenza if you can, but if you do get it, take care of yourself and protect others from your germs.

J. B. LINN SPEAKS TO SUE HITE CLUB ON TELEVISION

The Sue Hite Club met in regular session on Monday afternoon, February 26, in the Museum Club Room. Mrs. Herschel Coffee presided.

Guest speaker of the afternoon was J. B. Linn of the KGNC staff; his topic was television. Mr. Linn stated that no television stations are being built at the present time due to restrictions. The reasons for the restrictions are that stations must be separated in the airways better than they now are and that they are trying to standardize color transmission. The speaker stated that the production costs of television are tremendous. In comparison he cited this example—a 1-minute announcement on KGNC costs $27.00; 1-minute on television costs between $125 and $150.

Exact figures on the proceeds from game night, February 22, were not available, but the project was very successful.

City Barber Shop Still Tops in Men's Bowling League

League leading City Barber Shop chalked up another three games last week to keep them on top of the twelve team competition. The standing after last week's games are as follows:

1 City Barber Shop	809
2 K Service Station	714
3 K. L. Pond Ins.	619
4 Posters Ins.	571
5 Buffalo Barbers	571
6 Lions Club	571
7 Vocational Aggies	400
8 Johnson's Men's Wear	380
9 Southwestern Pub. Ser.	380
10 V. F. W.	333
11 Taylor & Sons	333
12 Samuelson's Motors	238

City Barber Shop put the grease to Samuelson's and slid them into the basement. K. Service secured second place with three over Johnson's and third place Ponds drove a solid nail in that position by taking two out of three from SWPS. Posters and Buffalo Barber Shop are still even up in the fourth position with 12 games apiece. The Lions chewed their way up to a fourth place tie in taking three from the V. F. W. Vocational Aggies took a hammering from Taylors with a three game loss, but managed to hold the seventh spot.

This week's games are the position playoffs. Each team will be out to better their position on the ladder to the top, when the first place City Barber Shop tangle with K. Service, Ponds with Posters, Buffalo Barber Shop and Lions, Vocational Aggies and Johnson's, SWPS and V. F. W. Taylors and Samuelsons.

Incidentally each bowler has his own battle to watch, with Evans leading the pack with 1692, Carter and the ever pressing third place Schmidt are still howling at his heels. As an observer at these matches one can see the pressure that is present by the impossible shots these men have to their credit. No shot is impossible and all make the everlasting attempt to make each one. Cecil Holland, of the City Barber Shop, not only once but twice has completed the impossible shot as the 3-7-10 split. Glenn Dorris of Samuelsons, uses the 4-8-3-6 split, and Collingsworth, of the Lions, is perfecting the ball stretching 4-6 split. Many more have been completed and are always a factor in the race to improve the individual score. Twenty-one games of experience have made these experienced bowlers into a class of experts. Come out and enjoy these evenings of recreation with the business men of Canyon any Tuesday or Thursday evening.

Egg Oddity Shown in News Office

On display this week in the News Office is a two-tone egg, which was brought to us by Tony Simon, who lives north of town. Divided almost exactly in the middle, one half of the shell is ivory color and the other half a dark brown.

Mr. Simon found the egg in a nest on his farm and believes that it was laid by a Red Hampshire hen.

The egg has caused much speculation and brought forth many comments by those who have seen it. You are invited to drop by to see it.

STONE OF SCONE

Relic Stolen From Abbey

LONDON, Eng. — The ancient Stone of Scone, a central fixture in the coronation of British kings, was stolen recently from Westminster Abbey.

Scottish nationalists and even the more moderate home-rule advocates cheered the news that the priceless relic had been removed from the abbey where it had rested since 1296.

The thieves broke a large splinter off the leg of the coronation throne, the oldest piece of furniture in the abbey, in removing the 336-pound stone. Twenty-seven monarchs had been crowned on it, including Britain's present ruler, George VI.

The stone, which had rested underneath the throne, was the symbol of the union of the crowns of England and Scotland.

The stone of Destiny (Scottish name for the stone), known to date back at least 1,100 years, measures 26½ by 16½ by 11 inches. A large rectangle is outlined roughly on the top. According to legend the stone grooves when a rightful sovereign sits on it, but remains silent beneath a conqueror.

Belongs to Scotland

Edward I took the stone to Westminster in 1296 from the old Abbey of Scone in Perthshire, where the ancient Scottish kings were crowned. Until it was stolen the only other occasion when it was moved from Westminster Abbey was in 1657 when it was taken to Westminster Hall for the installation of Oliver Cromwell as Lord Protector.

John MacCormick, chairman of the Scottish covenant movement, said whatever the outcome of the "present adventure" he hoped the stone ultimately would be kept in Scotland except on coronation occasions. He continued:

"The Stone of Destiny properly belongs to the people of Scotland. Under the terms of the Treaty of Northampton in 1328 the stone, which is the symbol of Scottish nationality, was to be returned to Scotland, but that treaty was never observed."

The theft itself was an exploit of the most sensational kind to the English. Police surmised the thieves attended a Christmas eve service, concealed themselves in one of the royal chapels until the early morning hours, and then removed the stone from beneath the throne.

Woodwork Scarred

Masonry and woodwork were scarred as the sandstone block was dragged away.

Most of the people of Scotland were happy about the theft. Nigel Trander, a Scottish Covenant leader, said:

"This venture may appear foolish and childish on the surface, but it will have the effect down south (England) of focusing attention on Scotland's complaints. It takes a lot to get any news of Scotland's national existence into the English press and this sort of thing is the only type of home-rule story that gets a break in the English newspapers."

Jet Engine Rough on Man Who Was Sucked Into Nose

DETROIT, Mich.—S/Sgt. Robert A. Lewis escaped recently from what the air force had considered sure death. He was sucked into the nose of a jet engine.

His life was saved by a fellow air national guard mechanic. Joe Cusenza saw something sticking out of the air scoop. When he saw it was a foot he jumped off the wing of the plane and grabbed it.

Cusenza clung desperately to Lewis, bracing his legs against the mouth of the scoop—into which there was also danger of his being drawn by the powerful jet engine.

M/Sgt. Bill Vedrody who was in the cockpit giving the engine a trial ground run, cut the switch when he felt the engine running "rough". Lewis and Cusenza plopped five feet to the ground with the release of suction.

Lewis said he had reached front of the air scoop to grab a streamer being sucked into it.

Capt. John E. Wood said Lewis was lucky his eyes weren't pulled from their sockets.

Contents of Lewis' pockets were sucked into the engine, the zipper torn from his jacket, his gloves turned wrong side out and pulled off.

Sailor Gets Dying Wish By Means of Merciful Ruse

CHICAGO, Ill.—William Kateneck, 36, a navy veteran, stricken with Hodgkin's disease, a blood cancer, died recently without having his wish for three ripe Bing cherries fulfilled—but a merciful ruse made him happy.

He was given frozen cherries instead.

He died in a veteran's hospital even as an air liner was flying seven pounds of the cherries across the Pacific ocean from Australia. The bings are out of season in the United States.

When it became apparent that he could not live long enough to enjoy the ripe cherries, attendants served him frozen cherries. Kateneck ate them in surprised gratefulness, and fell asleep with a smile on his lips. Hospital officials said he died believing his wish had been fulfilled.

Prediction

Perry Foresees Clash

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The clash of giants—the United States and Russia—over the issues of world freedom was predicted nearly a century ago by Commodore Matthew Perry, the man who opened the closed door of Asia.

"It seems to me that the people of America will, in some form or other, extend their domination and their power until they have brought within their mighty embrace multitudes of the islands of the great Pacific, and place the Saxon race upon the eastern shores of Asia," he said.

"And I think, too, that eastward and southward will hear great rival of future aggrandizement (Russia) stretch forth her power to the coast of China and Siam, and thus the Saxon and the Cossack will meet once more, in strife or friendship, on another field. Will it be in friendship? I fear not."

City Folks Helping To Increase Price Of U.S. Farm Land

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The agriculture department reports that city folks with money—and worries about possible further shrinkage in its buying power—are helping to inflate the farm-land market.

Many of the new buyers are businessmen and investors who are seeking good farms as an investment hedge against inflation, the department reported.

As a result farm prices increased on a national average basis 3 per cent between July and November. They now are 5 per cent above the record set in March, 1920.

The department also predicted further increases in prices, as more people seek what they consider to be safer places to invest their savings.

Also contributing to the increase is the improved farm-product prices. Some buying is being done by farmers who already own land and who wish to invest surplus cash in real estate and at the same time take advantage of the better farm-produce prices.

According to one prediction, farm incomes in 1951 will be at least 15 per cent higher than in 1950.

The department said land values advanced in all states from July to November. The east north central states showed the largest average gain for any region—6 per cent—but the west north central, west south central and pacific regions were up 5 per cent.

Average prices were higher than a year ago in all but three states. Florida showed the largest gain—19 per cent—largely because of favorable returns from citrus fruits and pasture lands. During the year increases of 10 per cent or more occurred in Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Texas.

There are also reports that many city people are buying farms as possible retreats in the event of war. Many seem to feel that in case large cities should be bombed it would be nice down on the farm again.

Men With Tails Reported Among Dyaks in Borneo

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Although there are at least 92 reasonably authenticated cases of men with tails, it was only recently that the second known photograph of such an individual has been received by the American Genetic association. The photograph was published recently in the Journal of Heredity. The tail appears to be about three inches long.

Another account of men with tails was given by a Japanese doctor who worked among the Dyaks in Borneo during World War II. According to reports the doctor found among his patients a man from 30 to 40 years old who had a tail. The tail was about three inches long and somewhat less than an inch thick. It was hairless and wrinkled. The native refused to allow close examination because his companions teased and laughed at him. The natives said there were others in the neighborhood having similar tails.

The Dyaks of Borneo have been most frequently mentioned as "tailed men", the journal reported, but most of the reports have been made by travelers who offered little real evidence. Some of the reports, however, are quite positive and clear. Tails appear to have been noted in both men and women. In one village, 20 tailed people of both sexes were reported.

Chief of Police Is Also Capable of Skulduggery

SALT LAKE CITY — Someone stole Police Chief L. C. Crowther's gold braided hat. As a result the chief routed out every top man on his force.

Then suddenly several days later it reappeared on his desk.

During its absence, the fancy lid was photographed atop the head of the police chief of nearby Ogden.

Investigation revealed that the Ogden chief, Maurice Schooff, and Ogden's chief of detectives, William Milligan, had made a hurried trip to Salt Lake City with a hat bag during the dark of night.

W. H. Upchurch Talked on Duties of Citizen Tuesday

W. H. Upchurch made a strong appeal for good citizenship at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. He stressed the need of not only better leadership in this country, but likewise of better followers. (A full report of the talk is omitted this week because of the lack of time to set the type).

Dr. J. A. Hill will speak to the club next Tuesday on "Democracy in Education."

Visitors were Arnold Attebury, Harry Hefner, Wood Jackson, Carl Schell, Allen Early, Jr., and Paul Fowler, all of Amarillo.

An open mind! A brain made to receive impressions, which leave their mark! A person in the making, to be enriched by all the lessons learned! You and I are the teachers, whether we have a state certificate or not. "Little pitchers have big ears." Have you stopped to consider how a child learns to talk? He has learned it from his playmate teachers. Have you listened to the words he frames? He heard someone else using those words and took them over. Have you marvelled at some wise saying that fell from his lips? It was first in his mind, where a passing teacher had fixed it.

Every child is a lover and a hero worshipper; and you are the hero and the beloved. From you he will take lessons which no other can teach. What are you teaching? This child in the picture before us has had a world of music opened to her by a musician; she will learn to finger the notes on the instrument, and then her soul will enter into fellowship with the master musicians of the ages. Music will become the language of her own soul, and many happy hours of life will have been given by a good teacher who first awakened the musical talent.

You and I have that sort of a relation to growing persons; we can give them good tastes in food and in recreation and in reading and in religion. We carry the next generation on our shoulders. Where shall we take them? Words are the best medium we have for the sharing of life with one another. "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." (Proverbs 25:11.)

Are we teaching some things we shall be sorry to have traced to us? What do we tell our children is most worth living for? What do we make them think is the goal and destiny of every successful man? Purity or impurity, reverence or skepticism, unselfishness or selfishness, sobriety or drunkenness, truth or falsehood? Teach your children to go to church—take them.

Bufs Won and Lost in Two Games of Week

The Buffalo basketball team chalked up another Border Conference victory Wednesday night but lost at Abilene Friday night.

The Bufs won Wednesday night by a 81-59 score when the Texas Western College of El Paso closed out the home season at Burton Gym. This was probably the last intercollegiate basketball game that will ever be played in Burton Gym, as the new field house will certainly be ready for use by the time next year's season starts. The new field house was scheduled for use this season, but work has been unduly delayed because of lack of materials.

The Bufs traveled to Abilene Friday to meet the powerful Hardin-Simmons University team. The Bufs lost, 49-47. The Abilene bunch took the lead after five minutes of play, which they never gave up. At the half the game stood 27-21; and H-S increased the lead to 10 points.

During the last five minutes the Bufs put on the heat and cut the lead to two points. Bill Price attempted a shot during the last 30 seconds, which went wild, and H-S froze the ball to end the game.

H-S Yearlings defeated the W. T. freshmen 52-32 in a curtain raiser. This was the second defeat for the young Buffaloes during the season.

Two Ties Are Result of Week's Bowling in Womens League

Monday night when the Palo Duro Womens League finished bowling Canyon Drug had downed Noland Drug two out of three games to tie them for second place with White way Service Station who lost three games to Palo Duro Dress Shop.

Noland Drug and Palo Duro Dress Shop are tied for first place with 15 games won and 9 lost. Noland Drug has the high average with 561 per game, and Canyon Drug runs second with a 523 average per game.

Laura Glenn of Canyon Drug banged out a 177 for the individual high score for this week and bowled a 500 game for the series.

Bufs Lost First Road Game Tuesday Against New Mexico

The Buffalo basketball squad is on its final road trip of the season. A double header was lost Tuesday night at Albuquerque, the freshmen being defeated by N. M. by a score of 58 to 49.

New Mexico won its 8th Border Conference game from the Buffaloes by a score of 65 to 54.

The Buffaloes play New Mexico A&M at Las Cruces Wednesday night, and then close the season Thursday night against Texas Western at El Paso.

John Deere Leads Business Women's Bowling League

As the Business Women's Bowling League moves on through the fourth week of bowling, John Deere still tops the list with a total of 10 games won and 2 lost, with Campus

Beauty Shop still in second place after losing two games to Taylor & Sons. Cole & McGahey and Ponds are tied for third place having won 5 and lost 7 each. Taylor & Sons are in fifth place having won two games from Campus Beauty Shop. H. R. Floral dropped from fourth to sixth place having lost three to John Deere.

Ruth Haynes still tops the list of high individual score, with 133.4 average with Shirley Burnette in second place with 116.0 average. Eight more girls top the 100 average and are trying hard to get to the top. Interest in the league is increasing as each night passes.

Many Die Who Neglect an Early Physical Check

"It has been well said that procrastination not only is the thief of time, but frequently the thief of health and life," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today. "Indeed medical records in physicians' offices and hospitals prove that many persons die because they do not receive early diagnosis and prompt treatment for their condition. An outstanding example of this fact is the great number of deaths from tuberculosis that could have been prevented."

"Tuberculosis is a powerful enemy, no matter what its stage, but the fact remains that early discovery and adequate treatment offer the best opportunity for cure. If the patient upon being told that he has tuberculosis cooperates fully with the strict regimen and discipline outlined for him, the disease can usually be overcome."

Dr. Cox said that in line with some of the other major killers, tuberculosis is insidious in its approach. Acute pain and discomfort are absent usually, and the symptoms are so comparatively mild that the patient is thrown off guard and considers them of little importance. Herein lies the real slaying ability of tuberculosis.

"The symptoms which, singly or in combination, demand an immediate checkup by the doctor are easy tiring, a persistent cough, and continued loss of weight."

"While it is true that any of these symptoms can be present without the patient having tuberculosis, this is no reason to imagine that such is the case. Therefore, if one is suffering from any of these manifestations, the only sensible and safe thing to do is seek the advice of the family physician at once," Dr. Cox warned. "If such a course is pursued, and the conditions turn out to be not serious, nothing has been lost. On the other hand, if tuberculosis is discovered, the patient by doing the wisest possible thing has probably saved his life."

Calves Rebound For 86-53 Win Over Tech Fish

The freshman basketball team of West Texas rebounded from their first loss of the season and soothed their injured egos by plastering a stinging 86-53 defeat on the frosh cagers of Texas Tech Monday night in Lubbock.

This win helped smooth over their narrow 57-60 whipping by Dowell's Saratoga Cafemen last week. The loss to Dowell's marred the Calves hopes for a perfect slate this year.

Again it was Troy Burrus that led the first-year men to victory. The lanky Canyon lad kept up his phenomenal average by drumming the cords for 26 points. Little Joe Abbott, atomic guard from Canyon, followed with 16 and Williams was third in line with 11 markers.

The Calves roared into the lead from the starting whistle and were never headed. At the halftime buzzer the boys of Borden price lead 43-27 and doubled their quota the second half.

THE AMERICAN WAY

No More Rubber Stamping

A 92-year-old replica of the Great Seal of Texas can now be seen in the office of John Ben Shepperd, secretary of State, at the Capitol.

This seal was removed from the Chamber of the House of Representatives in Washington when the edifice was renovated in 1949. With the seals of other states, it formed a sky-light.

The seal is 20 inches across, painted on glass in a cast iron frame. The gold star which forms the center is on a gray background, surrounded by a green oak and olive branch wreath, further adorned with a blue-bonnet, and tied with a dark rose ribbon.

The official seal of Texas, which is kept by the secretary of state, was designed when this was a republic. According to legend, Provisional Governor Henry Smith fashioned it by making an imprint with a large brass button from his overcoat. On the button was a five-pointed star surrounded by oak leaves. The olive branch and other ornaments were added later.

Cut expenses for higher education? "No!" says a college teacher who addresses his remarks by letter to John L. Crosthwait of Dallas.

The correspondent says that Texas is losing money by investing only two per cent of its wealth on education. (The figure is his.) He thinks the state might better spend five per cent on college and university students.

Other opponents of cutting higher education costs reason that state colleges and universities will lose the cream of their teaching staffs unless higher salaries are paid.

And a close observer here says that many workers in the various state departments will quit unless they get salary raises to meet higher costs of living.

A third of clerical, administrative, accounting, and technical employees will seek jobs elsewhere if recommendations of the Board of Control and Legislative Budget Board—carrying no salary increases—are followed by the Legislature, this observer believes.

In his message to the Legislature, Governor Allan Shivers said that it would be necessary to increase some salaries, so that the state could keep key workers in jobs of high responsibility.

It's better to live in the country than in the city. That's indicated, at any rate, by a report of the State Youth Development Council, which says:

"It has long been established that the rate of known delinquency is higher in populous areas and tends to increase with urbanization."

To prove its statement, the board points out that the state's nine largest counties (over 150,000 population) have 41 per cent of Texas' population, but they sent 55.7 per cent of the children to the state training or correctional schools.

The job of the State Youth Development Council is to study the juvenile problem—and to take steps approaching a solution to it.

Ability of Girls to Miss Sleep Amazes Housemothers in Randall

"The only problem we have is too much life and energy and the amazing ability of the girls to go without sleep", says Mrs. Nancy McCaslin, housemother at Randall Hall.

Mrs. "Mac", as she is affectionately called by the girls, has been trying to corral some of the excess life and energy at the Hall for the past fifteen years. She is very proud to be housemother at the oldest and largest dormitory on the campus.

Mrs. "Mac" takes her work girls. The most important part seriously and does a wonderful of her job is the same that all job of being mother to all the mothers have, just being around at all hours of the day and ready to answer any questions or solve any problems that come up. Mrs. "Mac" has a grand philosophy she applies to the problems that do come up. "All problems we consider small ones. The girls are so cooperative it makes everything easy to settle."

... RANDALL MOTHERS

Mrs. Woods, Mrs. McCaslin, and Mona Nelson, freshman advisor.

Canyon can well be proud of Mrs. "Mac", too, because she is an interested and active citizen. She is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Book Club, and Delta Kappa Gamma. She is a member of the First Presbyterian Church and works extensively with the young people and the women's auxiliary.

One of the funniest things Mrs. "Mac" remembers concerning her work happened a year or so ago. Mavis Hardy, now a senior dressed up in boy's clothes, started down the hall knocking on all the doors. You can imagine what a time Mrs. "Mac" had in getting peace and quiet once again!

During the past 25 years, Mrs. McCaslin has lived in Canyon and her three daughters have received degrees from West Texas. They are her responsibility. Mrs. McCaslin enjoys her responsibilities and the girls at Randall are very fond of her.

Another person at Randall Hall who enjoys working with young people is Mrs. Mavis Woods, assistant housemother.

Mrs. Woods first came to Canyon in 1935 to send her children to school here. In 1942 she was hired by the college as the dietitian for the athletic department. She worked there until she became assistant housemother in the fall of 1949. Mrs. Woods likes to work with boys and girls; they are her livelihood and recreation.

Mrs. Woods had not been at Randall very long until she had what she calls her "most hectic time." One quiet night she was in the office all alone. Suddenly girls started screaming and running! When Mrs. Woods finally found out what started the riot. There were boys all over the roof! To make things even worse, they had told the girls they were from Tech.

The highlight of the school year, Mrs. Woods thinks, is the Christmas party at the Hall. Mrs. Woods is a member of the Methodist Church and the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Woods' daughter received a degree from West Texas and is now teaching. Her son started his work here, but took his degree at Texas A. & M.

The most amusing thing about the housemothers at Randall Hall is the way they calmly play canasta at night in the office. They both maintain the other is the best sport. They both think canasta is a fine way to pass the time of night and they both enjoy it.

Another person very important to newcomers at Randall is Mona Nelson, freshman advisor. Mona is a senior business major from Tulsa and she will get her degree this spring. She lives on the floor with the freshmen and helps them in every way possible. She is friendly and is well liked by the freshmen.

BOOK CLUB HAS PROGRAM ON "OUR FOREIGN POLICY"

The Woman's Book Club met in the Club Room of the Museum in regular session on Wednesday, February 14.

The interesting and informative program on "Our Foreign Policy" was presented by Miss Darthula Walker and Mrs. C. R. Burrow.

All in a Year's Work

MUCH HAS BEEN DONE IN 1950 TO BUILD A STRONGER, BETTER TELEPHONE SYSTEM IN TEXAS

Telephone Installers Were Busy...connecting 557,650 telephones during the year, an average of one every 57 seconds. Back of this activity was a rapidly growing telephone system. Fifty-three new buildings were completed or started... enough dial and switchboard equipment was installed to serve 146,000 telephones... 131,000 telephone poles were placed... more than 1,164,000 miles of wire were added to the system.

Growth Is Expensive...Gross construction cost in Texas last year was $82,623,000. That's an average of $84.31 for each of the 980,000 people in all walks of life whose help we must have to pay for expansion and improvement of telephone service—the people who have invested their savings in the telephone system.

WE CAN'T STOP GROWING NOW

The need for telephone growth is far from satisfied. It is imperative that we meet fully the service demands for defense, both military and industrial. Now, as never before, improved telephone company earnings are important—for only adequate earnings can attract new investment money needed to expand the telephone system.

DO YOU CRAM

What is "cramming?" Webster defines it as "to put (a person) hastily through a course of study as in preparation for examination."

Do you "cram" the night before examination? Studying very hard the night before examination does not necessarily mean that one can make a good grade the next day. Some people do make a passing grade after a night of hard study, but they are few.

"Cramming" is not good. Hard study the night before the exam makes one tired and his mind is not clear for proper thinking. If one doesn't know what has been studied, he might as well quit because he couldn't learn it all the night before.

Of course one should review, but a night spent at a good movie is relaxation enough for the next day's exam.

Senior Vignette

Shooting snooker is his hobby and his ambition is to beat Mr. Harry Garrison. He is black headed, brown eyed, seventeen years old, and a member of the Church of Christ. He weighs one hundred sixty pounds and is five feet eleven inches tall. His ideal person is Mr. T. L. Devin and his favorite teacher is Mr. Jack Barnett. His girl friend's name is "Susan;" his name is Jimmy Dogdin. Red-headed Billie Thompson plays in the band as a hobby but wishes to make it a vocation. Her favorite song, "Tennessee Waltz" has nothing to do with her pastime of reading. She enjoys baseball and English. Billie goes to the Presbyterian Church and is eighteen years old. Her ideal person is Mr. "Gabe" Thompson and her favorite author is Thomas Hardy.

Dating Data

Here are a few things for a girl to consider when accepting a date with a boy.

1. Do you know the boy merely to speak to him or are you well acquainted?
2. Is he fairly nice-looking, neat, clean, and courteous?
3. In what manner did he ask for the date?
4. Who are his friends and what are his interests? Is he well liked?
5. Do you think you would enjoy being with him?

Adrian, Groom Fall Before CHS Teams

Adrian "Matadors" fell in their home arena Tuesday night, February 20, before on-rushing CHS Eagles by a 47-42 margin. Behind at the end of the first half, Canyon A's forged to victory before the final gun, led by the 14-point scoring of Ray Burrus.

One tally proved the deciding factor as Canyon B team eked out a 39-38 win over Adrian B's. Eagle's Owens and Matador Bruhki tied for scoring laurels with 11 points each.

Another win went down for the Eaglettes, Tuesday, February 20, when they defeated Groom 53-39. A close score of 13-9 was held by Canyon after the first period, but at the halftime it was 33-11. High scorer was Pat Ford with 23.

The "B" team was not so successful and lost by a 34-32 score. Canyon led by 2 points at the half but came up two short at the end. High point was Johnnie Bonds with 17.

The Canyon High School Band, directed by Mr. Herman Demus was presented in a concert Tuesday, February 27. The purpose of this concert was to buy awards for the senior members of the band.

Band Is Ready to Enter Contest

The Canyon High School band, under the direction of Mr. Herman Demus, is preparing to compete in the WTSC music festival April 26-28 for the third consecutive year.

During World War II, CHS band activities were at a virtual standstill. The first major attempt to reorganize the band was made in the summer of 1948, when Mr. Demus began preparing approximately thirty pupils for band membership the following fall. When school began, sixty students aspired to be bandsters.

Since that first year, several types of instruments have supplemented band equipment: bassoon, baritone saxophone, oboe, and tympani.

In the spring of 1949 the band was awarded a second division concert rating and third division in sight-reading; this was in class D competition. In the 1950 contest the group jumped to class A and took honors duplicate of the previous year.

This year the Canyon marching and concert band had put on fine half-time performances at football games, and has presented two concerts. Featured at the latter program was presentation of the band queen. Two more concerts will be presented this year in addition to entry in marching and concert contests.

"Bazaar In India" Southern Assembly

Spending six years in mysterious India, William S. Willett has woven information and an exhibit acquired there into an illustrated "Bazaar in India," a Southern Assembly which will be given at CHS March 7, 1951.

Mr. Willett made an intensive study of the country, its people and their life and customs. During the years spent in India he came face to face with the terrors of Oriental jungles which he relates in fascinating story.

There are in the exhibit oriental tom-toms which carry the cadence of jungle life, temple bells with haunting tones, and the beautiful skin of a man-devouring tiger killed by Mr. Willett. Also included are household, war, and hunting articles.

Mr. Willett imparts a wealth of Indian information and brings expert insight into what makes India tick. Since the country occupies such a grave and strategic position in world affairs, the future course of India will have much influence upon the future course of the world.

Faculty Elects '51 Who's Who

1951 Junior Who's Who members are announced after election by Canyon High School faculty members. They are: Florence Coffee, Sherma Dixon, Bettie Graham, Marshall Jones, Joyce Payne, and Richard Sanders.

Each year the adviser of the junior class selects fifteen students from the class who are eligible for membership in Who's Who. These students' names are presented to faculty members, who rate them on these points: citizenship, scholarship, loyalty, initiative, achievement, co-operation, personality, and dependability. The top six comprise Who's Who.

The next Eagle's Tale will publish a story about individual Who's Who members.

QUANDARY

The person is in a quandary whose take-home pay isn't enough to keep up the payments on the home he takes it to.

Coronation Hi-Lites Concert

BARBARA GLANTON

Coronation of the band queen highlighted the Canyon High School band concert, held Tuesday, February 27, under the direction of Herman Demus. The identity of the queen was held in secret until the queen presentation which preceded the concert.

Crowned Queen of the Band was pretty blonde Barbara Glanton who has been in the band for three years. Barbara plays first chair bassoon.

Other honors held by Barbara while in high school are: candidate for Hallowe'en Queen and freshman class valedictorian.

The trombone section was featured in an old ragtime tune, Trombone Blues. Other numbers included: The Pensionat Overture by Von Suppe, The Blue Danube Waltz by Johann Strauss, The American Folk Rhapsody by Clare Grundman, Comic Strip Suite by Harold Walters, The Mosquitoes' Parade by Howard Whitney, Ravel's Pavane, as well as the following marches: The Storm King, Invercargill, and Them Basses.

All proceeds are to be used to purchase band awards for the senior band members.

Juniors Lose Two; Trim Poodles

Overrunning the Canyon Junior High team 35-25, the Horace Mann Buffaloes regained the basketball league lead Monday, February 19, in the Canyon gym.

Avening an earlier defeat by the Canyon quintet, the Buffaloes were sharp on defense during the first half, holding Canyon to 9 points while garnering 19 to themselves.

Hutto of Horace Mann led the individual scoring with 15. Money was high for Canyon with 12.

Canyon got back into the win column when they clipped the Borger Poodles 27-24, Wednesday, in the Canyon Gym.

High point man was Ed Money of Canyon with 10 points. Following closely was Ruthart of Canyon and Golson of Borger with 8 each.

Final score Thursday between Price and Canyon at Price found the Canyon Junior High five on the short end 46-28.

Money of Canyon again led his team with 16 points. Urbanczyk was high for Price with 11.

SOLVED A PROBLEM

"Son, after four years of college, you're nothing but a drunk, a loafer, and a nuisance. I can't think of one good thing it's done."

The son was silent a moment. Suddenly his eyes brightened. "Well," he said, timidly, "it cured Ma of bragging about me."

Trip - Geography Highlites Spanish

"Tampico! Tampico!
On the Gulf of Mexico."

Willie Mac Weaver, Dick Dawdy, and A. C. Wimberly will be singing this song along about March 4. They are planning to go on the educational trip to Tampico, Mexico, March 4 through 11. The trip which is being sponsored by West Texas State College, will cost $66. This money will take care of typhoid shots, hotel rooms, food, special reservations, and transportation.

Spending money and money for food which will be eaten in the United States must be extra.

Taking trips is not all the Spanish classes do, however. Right now, under the direction of Miss Alice Payne, teacher, they are studying the geography and history of Latin American countries.

A beautifully illustrated book on this subject is being used in the classes mainly for conversation although it is a supplementary reader. It includes songs, short skits in Spanish, Spanish words that resemble English, and stories on the different regions of Mexico, Central and South America.

Thus, the CHS Spanish classes are not only learning the language of the Latin American people, but also the geographical conditions existing in those countries.

Eaglettes Bring 2nd Place Trophy Home From District 1-A Tourney

Canyon Eaglettes took one from Dumas and lost one to Dalhart to place second in the District Tournament held at Dumas Saturday, February 17.

Eaglettes met the Dumas Demonettes Saturday morning to win by a score of 33-37. Only a two point lead was held at the end of the first period with tallies 12-10, while a tie, 19-19, was the half-time score. Forwards Ford, Cox, Glanton, and Bonds fired excellently during the first half. Dumas was closely guarded, making only eight scores the third and fourth quarters.

Leading Canyon for scoring honor was Barbara Glanton with six field goals and two foul shots, making a total of 14 points.

The defeating of Dumas entitled Canyon to play in the final game Saturday night against Dalhart, who won over Perryton Saturday morning.

Dalhart Wolverines outscored but by no means outplayed the Eaglettes, winning by a score of 51-35. Joyce Davis, all-state forward last year from Dalhart, racked up 33 of the 51 points. A 9-6 lead was held against Canyon at the ending of the first period. A larger lead of 22-15 was held by Dalhart at the half. Canyon was behind only four points after the third, but the final score was 51-35.

On the all-district team from Canyon were Pat Ford, Lorayne Carter, and Barbara McDougal.

Both Canyon and Dalhart will compete in Region 1-A Tournament March 1-3 at McLean.

Regional Champs On To State!

Canyon Eagles are in Austin at state tournament this week after becoming regional champions Saturday night in Tulia by defeating the Phillips Blackhawks 47-40.

Eagles opened Tulia Regional tournament tilts Thursday afternoon, defeating Memphis 41-31. Billy Morton was high scorer with 13 points, followed by Bob Ratliff with 9.

Friday night the Eagles met Muleshoe. At the half-time the score read 26-16 in Canyon's favor, and the team went on to win 52-37. Morton again paced scoring for the purple and white, tallying 22 points.

As a result of two tournament victories, the Eagles Saturday night faced Phillips, who had previously defeated them to become District 1-A champions. In the Regional tourney the Blackhawks defeated Shamrock and Levelland on Thursday and Friday, bringing them to the championship game against Canyon. Favored Phillips was upset in the pow-wow, losing by a score of 47-40. Scoring ratio, which held steady throughout the game, was established by the end of the first quarter, Canyon leading 12-3. Mid-game score was 22-7. Morton and Ray Burrus each netted 17 points in the Phillips fight.

Placed on the Regional tournament team were Burrus and Morton, who were also members of the All-District five chosen at Phillips February 17.

Single elimination state championship competition, in which the Eagles are defending their 1950 championship crown, begins Thursday and will continue through March 3.

Waylon Carroll, cheerleader supervisor, lead CHS students in making final plans for the bus trip to Regional Tournament in Tulia Thursday afternoon, February 22. At noon meetings the preceding Tuesday and Wednesday, the cheering section was informed of impending plans; two school busses offered transportation for students not going in private cars and a section in Tulia gym was reserved for the cheering section. The group discussed ways of enlisting more Canyon supporters and arousing enthusiasm for the Eagles.

Notes

FIFTH GRADE NOTES

Last Wednesday hot chocolate and cookies were served from a beautifully appointed table to Mrs. Mitchell Jones's fifth grade. The hosts, Mrs. Andy Walsh's fifth grade, preceded refreshments with a Valentine program.

SCIENTIFIC EXPERIMENTS

Intensely interested pupils experimented with elements and compounds to see how they affected their environments in social science. Experimenting with water, air, gases, and minerals, they recorded observations and conclusions. Testing foods for starch and sugar, the pupils performed all experiments with the aid of Mrs. John Davis, sixth grade teacher. Royce Gum, 6-1 pupil, copper plated a paper clip by using copper sulphate and an electric current.

OBSERVE BIRTHDAYS

"Miss February's Party," a play by the fourth grades, was presented Friday to parents and the grade school. This play was a culmination of activities done in English and social science. It portrays all activities celebrated during February. Mrs. Huvelle Brasher and Mrs. Isabelle Cousins supervised acting and costuming of the fifty-six pupils.

HEAR LECTURE

As a climax of social science studies, the eighth grade heard a lecture last Monday given by Mrs. Newton Harrell. Telling of her many tours, Mrs. Harrell heightened the students' interest in foreign lands a great deal.

Time Out for Some Questions

Congressman Finds Increasing Tempo in Session Congress

THE STATEMENT OF JOSEPH STALIN

The great significance of the recent statement of Joseph Stalin does not lie in what Joe said or what he left unsaid, but in the fact that he broke a silence of approximately two years duration. It is well known that under the communistic theory "Silent Joe" is not supposed to say anything publicly unless it is for the purpose of settling inner-party differences which are of such great concern as to require a definite announcement of policy by Uncle Joe himself. Therefore his statement could well indicate that there are repercussions within the higher echelons of the Party in Russia as to the method of handling the great masses in Russian proper and the satellite nations. There is no doubt but that definite trouble has been encountered in the satellite countries that demanded some immediate and extreme measures. So it became necessary for Uncle Joe to speak his piece and to definitely underwrite the policy that the "Big lie" propaganda methods were still number one with the Reds. More about this later.

GRAIN SORGHUMS: The loan maturity date on grain sorghums could cost many farmers of the 18th District and 19th District lots of money. Congressman George Mahon and myself have conferred on several occasions with the Commodity Credit Corporation hoping to secure a sixty day extension of the loan maturity date and have enlisted the aid of numerous other Texas congressmen in this fight. There are several excellent arguments against the extension of this maturity date, but we have kept up the fight and expect to meet with Commodity Credit officials sometime within the next few days for the purpose of trying to work this matter out to the benefit of the Panhandle farmers. I have just talked to Mr. Underhill of the department and expect to have a conference with Mr. Kruse and Congressman Mahon within the next few hours.

WHEAT TO INDIA: There is a sharp division in Congress on what should be done on the Indian situation. The grain being considered is not all wheat. The request has been for food grains, which of course includes grain sorghums. The Indians grind this and make bread. Perhaps we could do a little research on this problem and help our own grain sorghum market. There are many points to consider in the proposed food grain shipments to India. Would appreciate the thoughts of you people in the Panhandle concerning this. Many letters have already come in.

VISITORS: We enjoyed visits from the following Panhandle folks this week: H. A. Wallace, Glen Osborn and W. V. Swinburn, from Tulia; Worth H. Nicholl, Charles M. Rogers and R. A. Selby, from Amarillo; Curtis A. Cryer and Ernest Kelly from Borger; Elmer J. Moore from Shamrock; J. L. Russell from Canyon; H. F. Railsback from Dalhart; C. R. Zevely and Huelyn Laycock from Pampa; and Lee Johnson from Phillips.

SIX DAYS A WEEK: Letters have been pouring in from all over the nation concerning my statement that Federal departments should stay open six days a week. Many of these are most abusive; many highly complimentary. The abusive ones did not come from the 18th District, but mostly from large cities and from Washington, D. C.

TEMPO: The tempo is increasing. Look for lots of news in the next few months, especially on the international situation.

CLOSE CALL

Two vets were exchanging war experiences. "And then I saw this Jap rise up out of a foxhole. He levelled his rifle at me and before I could get my gun up, he shot. The bullet went right through my left chest."

"That's malarkey!" snorted the other. "Why, that would have put it right through your heart and you'd be dead."

"Nope," replied the other. "When I saw him level that rifle, my heart sank so low the shot missed it complete."

FAIR PROPOSAL

The diesel rig had conked out on the highway. As the dispirited driver gazed at the defunct engine, a woman drove a car right up behind it and stopped. Almost at once she started honking the horn. She honked it long and loud, then in little aggravated beeps. Finally the driver couldn't stand it any longer. He walked slowly back to the car and said:

"Lady, if you want me to, I'll keep that horn hot for you while you see if you can get that rig started."

Progress Is Still Being Made Toward Fourth Annual Mexico Trip

"Plans are going forward for the Fourth Annual Spanish field trip. In the past we have visited the mountainous, ranching sections of Mexico but this year we are going to the east coast with Tampico as our destination."

In this way Dr. Ples Harper, head of the Modern Language Department sums up the forth coming trip to Mexico.

These trips are designed to provide students of Spanish an opportunity to see and know the people across the border and also to give them an opportunity to try out their knowledge of the Spanish language.

Spanish students have first priority on the trip but in case there are any vacancies other students may go also.

Early on Sunday, March 4 the group will leave Canyon and spend that day on the road to the friendly city of Eagle Pass. The next morning they will go down the north bank of the Rio Grande to Laredo and cross over to Nuevo Laredo and begin the Mexican portion of their journey.

Monterrey will be visited that evening and students will have the opportunity to observe primitive customs of that city. In spite of a tendency to keep alive old customs, Monterrey is fast becoming an industrialized city and is sometimes referred to as the "Pittsburgh of Mexico."

On the morning of March 6 the group will leave Monterrey for Tampico. The remainder of the 6 and also the 7 and 8 of March will be spent in Tampico, the northernmost tropical city of Mexico.

The area around Tampico is tropical and a great deal of it is agricultural. Tourist trade accounts for much of the income of Tampico.

On the morning of March 9 the group will leave Tampico, to go back through Ciudad Victoria, then will turn north-east along the coastal road to Matamoros, and cross over to Brownsville, returning to the United States.

The following morning the group will go to Kingsville, on to Corpus Christi, and then back to San Antonio for the night. The next morning they will leave for Canyon, and their journey will end sometime that evening.

Those going on the trip should be able to bring back quite a few souvenirs for the dollar now exchanges for 8.65 pesos, a very favorable rate of exchange.

Dr. Harper also has information on the clothing which will be suitable for the tropical region to be visited. One of the most important articles will be a bathing suit, for Dr. Harper plans to spend some time on the fabulous Tampico beaches.

Expenses have not been totaled yet, but Dr. Harper says that they should be about the same as last year's trip, perhaps a little more.

A LAD HASN'T A CHANCE!

O'Flannery and Gahagen had just come over from the Ould Sod and had had no previous experience with mosquitoes when they put up in a New Jersey hotel of a late afternoon. After being almost eaten alive, they went to a movie to avoid them and, returning to their hotel after dark, O'Flannery sez to Gahagen: "Let's go back to ould Ireland, lad, for 'tis plain these beasties'll give us no rest. Look, they've now come looking for us with lanterns!" and he pointed to the lightning bugs.

THE BIG DECISION

"This is your fifth offense," said the stern judge. "We have been lenient with your traffic offenses in the past, but this is serious. Where is your lawyer?"

"I don't have one, Judge," replied the delivery driver. "To be frank, I knew it was so serious I decided not to get a lawyer. I'm just going to tell the truth."

LESSON THAT STICKS

The teacher had been giving a lesson on the use of the word "immaterial" and to discover what the children had learned, asked them to bring some article to school demonstrating the word.

"Well, Johnny," she asked the next day, "what have you brought?" Johnny, rising, said "Will you please hold this stick lightly at both ends?"

"All right, what next?" "Now let go one end." "Which end?" the teacher asked. "Oh, it's immaterial. There's glue on both ends."

READ WHAT YOUR NEIGHBORS SAY ABOUT—"I'D CLIMB THE HIGHEST MOUNTAIN"

A very appealing and wonderful picture. I hope everyone sees it.

A very fine movie—warmly human and touching. Yet carrying a deep religious message.

I think it is a wonderful picture. We need to have more like it.

I think the picture to be the best I have ever seen along the line of true religion and good neighbor like one toward another. I only hope we can have more of its kind for everyone to see.

I think this picture was very outstanding and think many, many others should see it.

In such times as we are living I think it is a wonderful picture to lift us up.

"I'd Climb the Highest Mountain" is excellently done and appeals to highest emotional and spiritual responses. The story is correctly portrayed as a church background. America will do well to rethink her religious connections as suggested. Highly pleased.

A splendid picture, one that should bring our town to closer fellowship.

If we could have more pictures like this one, we might be better neighbors and Christians. It was wonderful.

One of the most soul stirring movies I have ever seen. One that everyone should see for his own good.

Good and true and beautifully done. See this theme instead of the less elevating themes we usually see.

I think it is a wonderful picture. Hope and wish every one in the whole country to see it.

Superior production — one of the best I ever saw.

A beautiful story delightfully told. May we have more pictures of the same type.

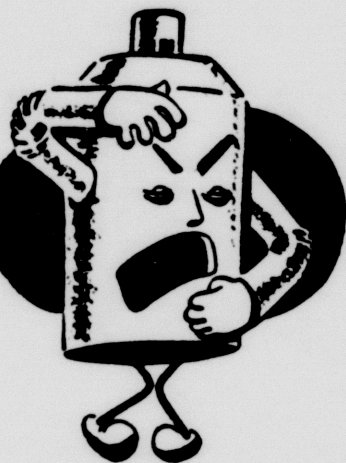

Thanks for the privilege of seeing such an inspiring picture. I'll certainly tell others about it.

This picture is truly the kind of picture which brings a kind of life and problems down to the people. I think the picture is uplifting and a credit to the motion picture industry.

Was very good. Wish more folks could see it. Especially all young people—was wonderful.

Plans Started for Ex-Students Club

Laycock, Shamrock and Sybil Ann Gillis, Plainview.

The class agents will assemble here on March 17 in an effort to aid each other.

Morris and his two assistants are currently filling out cards, printed by the manual arts class, and placing them on file for students already located. The most recent information came Tuesday when cards were sent from Amarillo containing information on a group of Amarillo teachers who are WT graduates.

Another step in the organization has been the planning of an ex-student newspaper, the initial copy which will be published March 17. This type of newsletter will be sent to every ex as soon as the list of addresses is complete. Vincent Lockhart of Amarillo is publishing the first issue.

Morris has also secured aid through the various campus social clubs, and will receive a list of their exes in the near future. Also, each club has planned to include news in their monthly publications, soliciting any addresses of ex-students.

Later, Morris said, the club would be expanded to include not only graduates, but any student who ever attended school here. They, too, will be eligible for membership.

Each senior class from now on will appoint one member from their ranks to serve on the board of directors. The current officers, and directors, are:

Felix H. Phillips, Amarillo; president; Vincent Lockhart, Amarillo, first vice-president; L. H. Brotherton, Gruver, second vice-president; Dr. E. P. Stewart, Tulla, director; J. W. Dillard, Borger, director; Herman Ford, Amarillo, director; Otis E. Burk, Perryton, director; Miss Mary Lou Roberson, Lubbock, director; Kenneth Laycock, Shamrock, director; and Morris.

Handbooks have been sent out to all board members, and also to all exes whose addresses are known. The books include pertinent information, the charter, application for membership, club by-laws, and the basic club program.

"We also want all students attending WT now to become members in conscience before they graduate," Morris said.

"We've started late," he said, "but we're here to stay a long time."

Ruth Lill Weds R. A. Martin In Abilene

Ruth Lill, 2041 Hickory St., Abilene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lill of Canyon, became the bride of Robert Archie Martin, stationed at the Naval Air Station, Dallas, son of Mrs. Conola Martin, 873 Mulberry St., on January 28.

Paul Witt, Church of Christ minister, read the double ring service in the parlors of the Hendrick Nurses Home. The wedding party stood before two windows decorated with a large white satin bow from which streamers fell to floor baskets of white stock. Azeleas were used to further decorate the room.

Mrs. Roy White, pianist, accompanied John Schwenson who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." She played the traditional wedding marches and during the ceremony played "Romance" (Schumann) and "Traumerai."

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a teal blue gabardine suit with brown accessories. Her flowers were white carnations. For something old she borrowed a lace handkerchief from Lila Marie Compton, who was her maid of honor.

Her attendant wore a wine colored suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of light pink carnations.

Claude Herring was best man.

The bride's mother wore a beige colored suit with pink and black accessories. Mrs. Martin wore a suit of dark green with brown accessories. Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

A reception was given for the bridal couple in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Lewis, 765 E. N. 11th St. Guests were received from Canyon and Amarillo by the bridal couple, their parents and the hosts. An arrangement of white chrysanthemums tied with a wide satin bow from which streamers fell across the table was used. The cloth was an heirloom one of handmade linen.

Mrs. Martin will continue her work as a senior student nurse at Hendrick School of Nurses. She is a graduate of Canyon High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University. The bridegroom attended Abilene high school and Abilene Christian College High School. He is a fireman first class in the Naval Air force.

ORGANIZERS: The search for 32,000 ex-students is being conducted mainly by (left to right) Dorothy Lawless, Milton Morris, and Sue Christy. Morris, executive secretary of the organization, is chief of the gigantic task, and progress is rapidly being made.

A storehouse of missing persons has been gradually accumulating for the past 32 years, and now the task of locating 32,000 West Texas State graduates has been handed to a small, but progressive, band of workers.

The purpose of the extensive search, which has necessitated letters and telephone calls to various parts of the country, is the creation of an Ex-Students Association. Never in the school's history has such a project been undertaken.

Heading the search is Milton Morris, executive secretary of the infant organization, and his two assistants, Dorothy Lawless and Sue Christy. The trio of tireless workers spend sometime as many as 12 hours a day searching for past students. To them, a simple needle in a haystack would be like taking candy from a baby as compared to their gigantic undertaking.

The aim of the club is to take West Texas to the communities in which exes live, and to "maintain contact between ex-students and the college," according to Morris. "Tax payers should know the opportunities that their regionally tax supported college offers the young people in the state. Those advantages should be kept before the citizens," he added.

The first step in the organization process was the rounding up of all past annuals and the completion of a list of every graduate since the first diploma was issued in 1919. Mimeographed lists of all such exes, and their address at the time of graduation, have already been compiled. The main problem has naturally been the fact that most of the graduates are now scattered to the four winds, and the antiquated addresses available are of very little use.

A "working file" will be made up of all addresses until checked, and upon verification, an "active file" will be compiled which will include questionnaires and addresses filled in by the exes themselves. But that is a long way in the future, according to Morris.

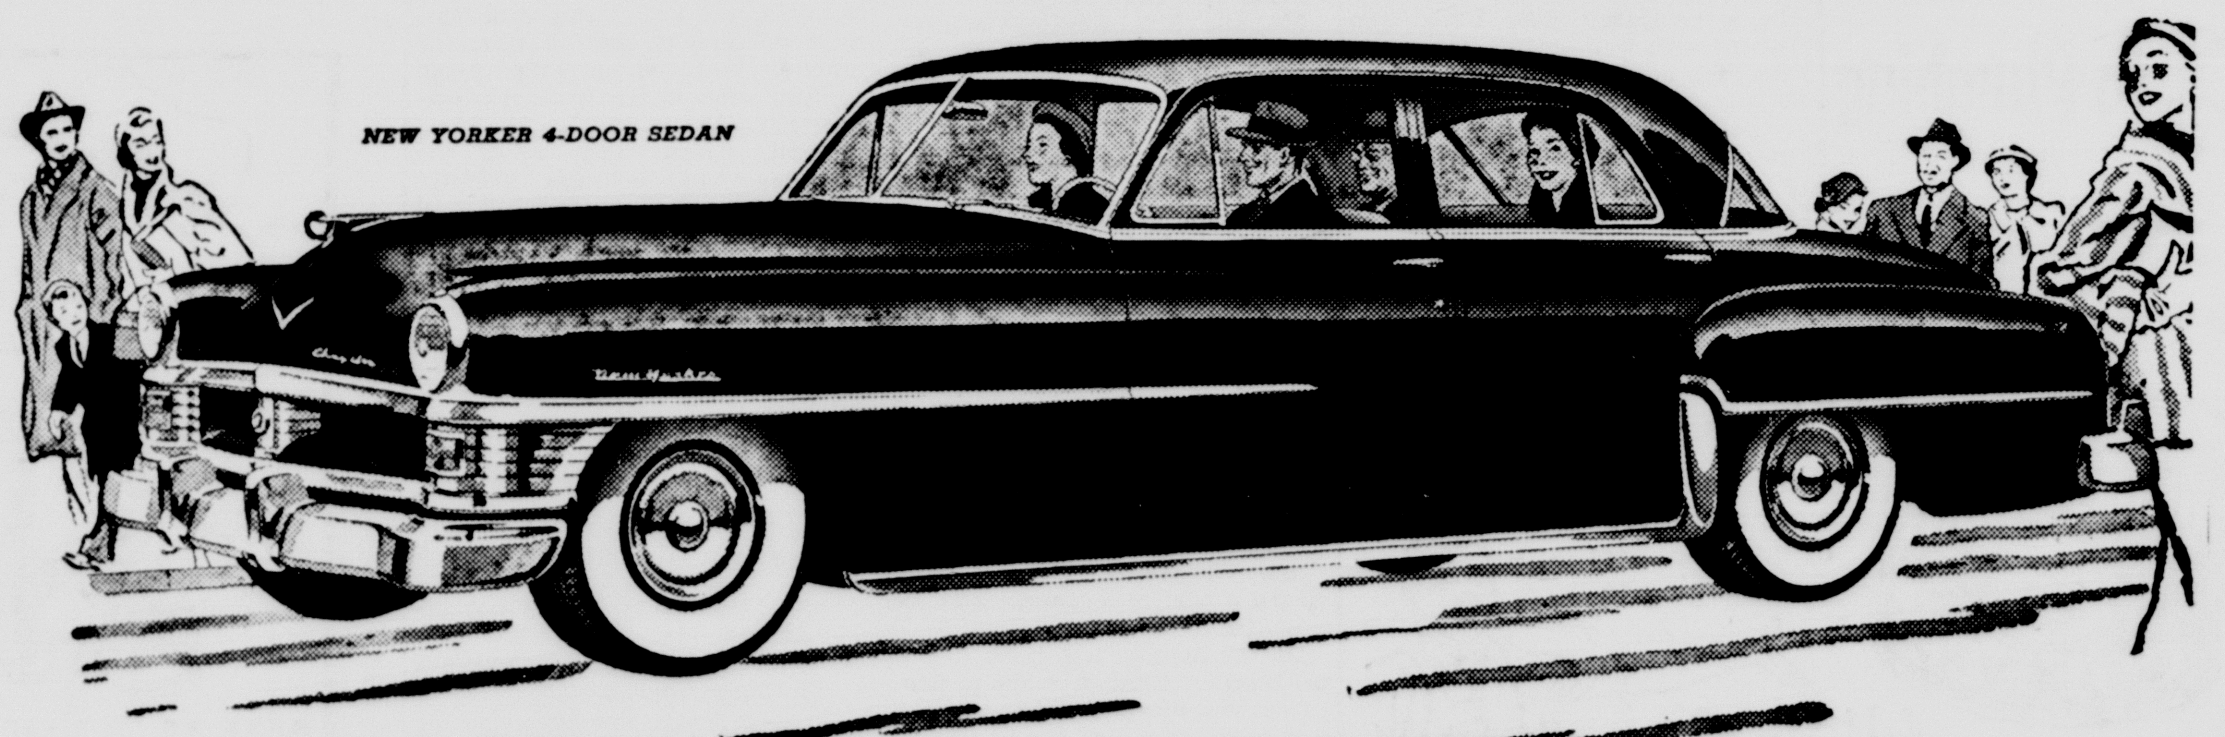

Class agents—representatives from each of the past graduating units—have been appointed and have joined Morris and his staff in the search. These agents have taken on the responsibility of finding as many of their respective classmates as possible. Some are sending chain-letters and others are holding meetings in the wide-spread canvassing. The agents, the classes in which they graduated, and the town where they now reside, are:

1919, 1920, 1921, and 1922, Mrs. Tommie Montfort, Canyon; 1923, Dan Sanders, Canyon; 1924, Frank Hill, Tahoka; 1925, Dr. Ruth Lowes, Canyon; 1926, Ray Daniel, Amarillo; 1927, Mae Simmons, Canyon; 1928, Dr. Lee Johnson, Canyon; 1929, T. H. McDonald, Amarillo; 1930, Marion Higdon, Canyon; 1931, Mrs. Georgia Whittenburg Hawks, Amarillo; 1932, Mrs. Lenna Foster Parker, Canyon; 1933, Elmer Wootten, Canyon; 1934, Lawrence Brotherton, Gruver; 1936, Marian Hill, Borger; and 1937, LeRoy Roberts, Happy.

1938, Oscar Hinger, Canyon; 1939, Jack Pate, Amarillo; 1940, Jack Edmondson, Pampa; 1941, Mary Collins Bagot, Amarillo; 1942, Garland Turner, Quanah; 1943, Connelly Lockhart, Amarillo; 1944, Dorothy Jane Tout, Dumas; 1945, Dorothy Heath Lawless, Canyon; 1946, Beulah Hammond Sykes and Martha Hammond Warren, Canyon; 1947, Bill Montgomery, Amarillo; 1948, Dawson Little, Amarillo; 1949, Carroll Dozier, Amarillo; and 1950, Kenneth

Local Territory Is Storehouse For Museum Relics, Says Steen

How would you like to suddenly bump into a dog the size of a bear? Or a camel with a neck seven feet long? Or perhaps a machaerodont carnivore? Well you won't so there is no need to worry, but over at the Panhandle-Plains Museum you could see the replicas of such monsters, all of which once roamed the plains of the Panhandle.

Can you imagine sabre toothed tigers running around the Administration building, mastodons (type of elephant) camping on the site where the cafeteria now stands, or huge dinosaurs galloping up and down Polk Street in Amarillo? This is not a nightmare, but a dream of how it might have looked millions of years ago.

Dr. Charles Steen of the United States National Park Service says the territory around Canyon is a veritable storehouse of undeveloped Indian and fossil remains. He said that if the government decides to build a dam on the Canadian River, all these traces of early man and fossil sites will be lost forever; so they must work rapidly and carefully to remove as much of this history as possible.

To accommodate some of these new excavations several changes are being made in the museum. New rooms and better arrangements of displays have been added.

The fossils in the show cases are placed beside pictures of how they must have looked when alive—these make it very simple for the visitor to learn his natural history. The cases are all in chronological order, according to the geographical period when the fossil lived. All these ancient bones made a weird parade as they were transferred to their new home in the south basement.

Pioneer lore will be the subject of the main floor. The first room will contain approximately the same things it has now, with an addition of a lasso display along the wall by the gun case. The new addition in the back will have little rooms depicting as near as possible what the actual pioneer home looked like. Log cabins with newspaper for wall-paper, a bed room with a wooden cradle, a kitchen, everything that made a home in those days.

A room is also being made to duplicate a sheriff's office, complete with iron bars. They even have the consequences for a "villain"—lovely set of gallows! The dentist's office has complete equipment—a chair and a pair of pliers!

But what is a pioneer without Indians and buffalo? Down stairs is a very complete display of arrowheads, pottery and other elements of Indian life from the days of the first westward movement.

Has your car been sick lately? Does it cough excessively? Well, you wouldn't complain once you get a good look at the grandfathers of today's cars. They have the latest model lantern on the front, window shades, everything a la mode of the early 1900s! Gosh, who would be without a horseless carriage!

"A good museum never ceases improving," says Dr. Reinhart—which is especially true of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, the only one in all the Panhandle. It contains histories too numerous to mention, valuable collections, hours of work and care, and finally a storehouse of knowledge which any Texan should be proud to know.

Students Heard On NBC Program

Sophia Van Mourik and Dorothy Barnett were on the NBC program "Welcome Traveler," Tuesday morning. Sophia is on her way home, back to Holland, after a semester here at WT. Dorothy, a freshman from White Deer, is accompanying Sophia as far as New York City.

After Sophia and Dorothy had told them about their travels he gave each of them specially designed jewelry. For Dorothy he also had a pair of cowboy boots. For Sophia to take back to Holland he had a year's supply of popcorn, an electric popper and an aluminum popcorn serving set. As a special gift for Sophia's father, Bartlett had four of the famous Springmaid sport shirts, by Springs Cotton Mills.

Too Small Force To Enforce Truck Overload Laws

AUSTIN: More than 17,800 truck arrests were made on Texas Highways for overloading and other violations for the year ending August 31, 1950, according to a recent report released by Kent Odom, Chief of the License and Weights Division of the Department of Public Safety.

8,447 cases were filed in Justice Courts throughout the State, charging the operation of vehicles with loads in excess of the 48,000 pound gross load limit and over 18,000 pounds of weight on each truck axle; 3,801 cases charged operation in excess of registered gross weight of the truck and 5,582 cases were filed for miscellaneous offenses, such as overlength, overwidth, driving while intoxicated and operating without permits.

According to the report, nine trucking companies were arrested more than 100 times last year. One Dallas firm with 265 arrests, was fined over $5,000 for hauling more than a million pounds excessive weight.

The License and Weights Division of the Department of Public Safety is composed of only 33 inspectors, who must work in pairs patrolling the 36,840 miles of the Texas Highway System. During the period covered by Chief Odom's report, these guardians of the State roads checked more than 72,000 trucks and found one out of every four were violating the law.

The January monthly report just released by the Public Safety Department indicates an increase in highway truck law violations. It shows a total of 2,051 arrests.

Many states have found that one effective way to prevent these constant violations of overloading trucks on State and County roads, is by requiring the overloaded trucks to reduce the excessive weight to the legal limits before proceeding over the roads.

Texas has no such unloading on the spot law. A bill is now pending in the Senate, known as H. B. 11, designed to stop the practice of overloading trucks continuing on their way after paying a small Justice Court fine. The proposal would also give authority to the Department of Public Safety, the County Sheriff or his deputy to make such arrests.
